

Study Tips for the Challenge Exam

Most of your preparation for this exam was done in high school, at home, or in the mission field. However, there are some specific principles you should review:

- Por versus para
- Ser versus estar
- Preterit versus imperfect
- Present subjunctive
- Imperfect subjunctive
- Impersonal phrases and other subjunctive triggers
- Direct and indirect object pronouns
- Reading comprehension
- Listening comprehension

The webclips.byu.edu website offers a free program which reviews the highlighted principles.

The Challenge Exam is a multiple choice, two-hour timed, computerized test. It will be administered in the Humanities Testing Lab (B-153 JFSB).
